The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-17 and 19-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fujimoto.

The claims are so broad as to read on Fujimoto's tights Fig 5, the tights further including a heavy stretchable material (1), which is capable of covering all of the claimed muscles of the device of claims 1-32.

The applicant is reminded that the structure of the body may not be used as a limitation, which patentably distinguishes the device from the prior art.

The device of Fujimoto is capable of engaging the claimed muscles of the device of claims 1-32. See fig 5 note elements (1).

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. 1) Note the overall device of Wilkinson.
